OSHER LIFELONG LEARNING INSTITUTE NEW MEMBER INFORMATION MEETING TO BE HELD SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 22, 2012

LA JOLLA (August 23, 2012) -- Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at the University of California, San Diego, will hold a New Member Information Meeting on Saturday, September 22, 2012. Refreshments will be served at 9:30 a.m. followed by a presentation starting at 10:00 a.m. on the UC San Diego Extension Campus in the Rubinger Center, Building “D” located at 9600 North Torrey Pines Road and Muir College Drive. Free parking is available adjacent to the UCSD Extension Campus. Fall quarter classes begin Monday, October 1, 2012.

Members enjoy many lectures and presentations including the highly regarded and popular Distinguished Lecture Series. This quarter, there will be approximately 100 lectures including our main themes of Science and Medicine, Arts and Humanities and Law and Society. there is a series on the critical 2012 elections and, one highlighting China in the 21st Century, plus a wonderful Live Music series. In addition, there is a host of marvelous peer-led classes continuing in the small classroom. It will be another quarter of Osher quality fulfillment and enrichment.

In existence for over 37 years, the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute at UC San Diego is an adult education program with a curriculum designed for those who are at least 50 years of age and enjoy challenging learning without tests or grades. The year-round program offers a broad range of education opportunities, which includes over 120 academic courses, plus tours and social events. There are no education requirements – just the desire to learn for learning’s sake.
